

What Controls You?

As we think about why Jesus came to die, we acknowledge our need. Yet, our need is not all that is involved. We also marvel at His willingness to meet our need. His willingness to die for us calls to us to respond.

Scripture(s): 2 Corinthians 5:12-21

I. The first cause and effect statement which calls us to live our lives as a response to the sacrifice of Jesus is such sacrifice motivates loving _____.

Christ's love for us calls our hearts to do great things, even things that others think of as _____, for Him.

II. The second cause and effect statement which calls us to live our lives as a response to the sacrifice of Jesus is such sacrifice changes our understanding of _____. Coming face to face with Jesus' gift to us changes how we see _____.

✓ Let the love of Jesus motivate your life to _____ people to Jesus.

III. The third cause and effect statement which calls us to live our lives as a response to the sacrifice of Jesus is such sacrifice transforms _____ we are. The gift of Jesus is this miracle: saved people ARE _____ people.

IV. The fourth cause and effect statement which calls us to live our lives as a response to the sacrifice of Jesus is such sacrifice transforms our _____ for living. God now offers all of us this purpose: to be His _____.

✓ Risk by saying yes to Jesus _____.

Remember this - The love Jesus has shown to us urges us to live a life that reflects Heaven's _____.

Our challenge: Let go of your past view of life and embrace a life which is a constant _____ to the loving sacrifice of Jesus.

July 19, 2020

"We Are Called to Be God's People" 390

"My Heart Is Yours"

"His Mercy Is More"

* Pastoral Prayer &
Children's Sermon *

"I Know Whom I Have Believed" 337