

Living In Understanding

How can you tell if you really understand something? We show that we understand salvation by following God's directions for living it.

Scripture(s): Philippians 2:1-5

I. The first way we show that we truly understand what it means to be saved is by valuing each other _____. Too often, Christians pick and choose whom they _____. The love we should show is the love that puts others' interests _____ our own.

✓ Do you play favorites? _____ it! It is just like a _____ that does it.

II. The second way we show that we truly understand what it means to be saved is by being _____ as a body. We may not always agree, but are we truly _____?

✓ Value others more than just getting our _____ or making our points.

* Remember, Jesus made our unity as believers a key way we _____.

John 13:34-35 ³⁴ A new commandment I give to you, that you love one another, even as I have loved you, that you also love one another. ³⁵ By this all men will know that you are My disciples, if you have love for one another."

John 17:20-23 ²⁰ "I do not ask on behalf of these alone, but for those also who believe in Me through their word; ²¹ that they may all be one; even as You, Father, are in Me and I in You, that they also may be in Us, so that the world may believe that You sent Me. ²² The glory which You have given Me I have given to them, that they may be one, just as We are one; ²³ I in them and You in Me, that they may be perfected in unity, so that the world may know that You sent Me, and loved them, even as You have loved Me.

III. The third way we show that we truly understand what it means to be saved is by being focused in _____. Many people do not have any _____ about their purpose. The purpose of our life should be to point everyone to _____.

✓ Can people tell Jesus motivates your _____? Beyond the job, beyond the family, does your life reflect Jesus?

Remember this - Christians are more than people that share a morality or a belief system. Christians are a people who share a way of seeing the _____.

Our challenge: Come to Christ, live _____, be what the church can be.
