

What's the Big Deal?

There are times when people do not realize the consequences of their actions. They do not know what will come next. It is at that point that they need someone who has been there to give them input. God tells us what comes next if we would but listen.

Scripture(s): Romans 1:26-32

Today's truth - Rejecting God creates more _____ in us than we could ever realize.

I. The first result of rejecting God as God is destructive, _____ passions. Passion without truth leads us to live outside what is _____ for us.

II. The second result of rejecting God as God is deceptive and _____ thoughts. The mind that does not truly acknowledge God is being corrupted by a _____ that it thinks will free it.

Titus 1:15-16 15 To the pure, all things are pure; but to those who are defiled and unbelieving, nothing is pure, but both their mind and their conscience are defiled. 16 They profess to know God, but by their deeds they deny Him, being detestable and disobedient and worthless for any good deed.

III. The third result of rejecting God as God is a filling with _____. Rejecting God means that we become masters of self-_____.

Isaiah 5:20 Woe to those who call evil good, and good evil; Who substitute darkness for light and light for darkness; Who substitute bitter for sweet and sweet for bitter!

What do we do about this?

1. Seek the truth that will _____ and lead your passions.
2. Reject the lie that real freedom exists apart from _____ to God and His way.
3. Be honest about what God says about the effects of the sin in your life and do something about that _____.

Our challenge: Receive the life of Jesus in _____ the parts of your life.
