Some observations from the questions that come from this passage:

1) No matter how distracted WE might have gotten, Paul has not once wavered from the main idea that he is not _____ of the gospel of Jesus Christ. The good news of Jesus is the _____ that Paul would literally die on.

2) We might think that we worry about the shame of sin, but we worry just as much about the shame of trusting in a God that might _____ us. God has promised and Paul has explained why we need never fear being _____ in God.

3) We know we believe God's way when we trust Jesus and refuse to _____ _____ in trusting Him with everything we are.
